All applicants accepted to the Somatic Archaeology™ Certification Program must complete all six courses of the training program within a two-year period, initiating with the Earth Centered Healing Introductory class (previously named Exploring & Healing Body Memory). In addition you must agree to the following provisions:

- 1) This is an advanced training program and does not necessarily give you license to touch. All students must comply with their local and/or state regulations regarding licensure of body workers, therapists, etc.
- 2) Students must provide trainer with copies of educational certifications or degrees if they plan to practice Somatic Archaeology™ in a professional setting.
- 3) Students must be willing to abide by professional ethics and standards of care that display integrity in their actions and respect the boundaries of their clients.
- 4) Students must accept full responsibility for their well-being, participation in, and creation of this program.
- 5) Full attendance is required. In emergency circumstances, class make-up is offered.
- 6) Students must pay an application fee upon registration. Tuition must be received in full to begin training program. A certificate of completion will be issued only upon payment in full of all tuition.
